PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This home has it ALL! This immaculate home is in a well-established and friendly neighborhood, minutes from shopping, 275 and located in the desired Milford School District. Enjoy the quiet, peaceful wooded view from the large screened-in porch. Hardwood floors and an impressive staircase greet you as you enter this warm and inviting home. Elegant formal dining room features tray ceiling with wood inlay, updated chandelier and lots of natural light gleaming through the large, triple windows.

The formal living room features built-in bookshelves perfect for all your books and family photos and adjoins right into the family room. The spacious family room offers a great view of the screened-in porch and the large windows give you a fabulous view of the woods and creek. Enjoy cool winter nights with a crackling fire in the beautiful stone fireplace that is one of the best features of this room. The kitchen is equally impressive perfect for large gatherings and entertaining. You'll love all the counter space and cabinets, a built-in pantry, planning desk, updated appliances and located just a few steps through the sliding doors to the screened-in porch. Off of the kitchen is a bright, cheerful laundry room offering plenty of space with a massive closet for all your coats, shoes and extra things as you come in from the garage.

Upstairs you'll find a spacious master bedroom with vaulted ceilings and an incredibly large private master bathroom with his and her sinks, a gorgeous spa tub and walk-in closet. You'll love spending time here soaking in the relaxing tub after a long day at work. The secondary bedrooms are very spacious as well.

A finished walk out from the lower level features a kitchenette and built-in bar area with plenty of room to play pool or watch a movie. An office or workout area is just on the other side in case you need to get some work done or get a quick workout in.

The backyard is extensively landscaped with perennials and a large stone patio and is truly a little piece of nature's paradise with its beautiful mature trees and singing birds. You'll love this convenient location and quiet, friendly neighborhood.
